GREAT MATES STILL

Jamie Trickery (right) and Wayne Sweeney (left), both 13, live 'around the corner' from each other in Altona — Jamie in Myrtle Grove and Wayne in Queen Street.

One day in October last year, Wayne suffered serious third-degree burns to his legs after fireworks in his pocket ignited.

Like a true mate, Jamie was always at Wayne's hospital bedside trying to cheer him up.

Both were to compete in the Victorian all junior swimming championships and on Saturday they qualified for the finals.

But on Saturday afternoon Wayne was hit by a horse while riding his mini-bike and the bike landed on top of him.

Three stitches were put in Wayne's knee but it did not deter him from swimming at Olympic Stadium pool on Sunday.

However Wayne finished last in the 100 metre free-style race.

His mate Jamie won the race and Wayne was persuaded to withdraw from the three other finals.

As compensation, VASA officials gave Wayne badges for each of the three races.

Commission is blocked

Altona Council is objecting to a town planning application for the proposed Housing Commission estate at Altona North, in a bid to get a better deal for the city.

At a special meeting, council decided to tell the Board of Works that it wants the commission application to be placed on public exhibition to permit objections.

Council is objecting to the Housing Commission scheme, claiming plans are not sufficiently detailed.

Council also opposes the erection of dwellings higher than two storeys and believes housing near Ross Road would be too close to industry.

If built, the proposed commission estate will increase Altona's population by 25 per cent. within a four year term.

HOUSING FOR AGED OPPOSED IN COUNCIL

Moves by the Altona Welfare Committee to gain accommodation for elderly citizens in the Housing Commission complex planned for Altona North, met strong opposition from Cr. Ian Stewart at last week's Altona Council meeting.

Attacking a motion by the deputy mayor, Cr. Charlie Carlsson, Cr. Stewart said: "This is a premature move and I would be very disturbed if this minute goes through. Before we know it, we'll have an avalanche of people asking for this type of assistance."

Cr. Carlsson, a member of the Altona Welfare Committee, had moved that council approach the Housing Commission to set aside an area for elderly citizens on the proposed housing estate.

Cr. Stewart was quick to move an amendment that the matter be referred back to a general purposes committee meeting for full discussion.

"While I agree with the thoughts in principle, I cannot go along with the motion," Cr. Stewart said. "I am a trustee of the elderly citizens' club and Cr. Richards and I have spent some time touring Altona talking to people on this matter."

"Some of the points brought up here tonight, cut across the thinking of experts."

"I would oppose any move to put elderly there," Cr. Stewart said.

"What was going to be a large school in that area is already going to be three smaller schools," he added.

"And the SEC will be retaining 10 acres of land there for some time."

"We've got to get this back to committee," Cr. Stewart said.

"And I can assure you the discussion on this one won't be pleasant there or anywhere for that matter."

"This matter covers both of my portfolios."

Cr. Ray Richards supported the remarks by Cr. Stewart.

"I think we should go back on this one with an open mind," Cr. Pat Lynch said.

Cr. Stewart won his amendment and the matter will be discussed in committee.

Students clean up their school

Senior students at Altona High School recently held a week-end working bee to clean up untidy areas of the school.

The principal, Mr. McDonald, reported to the March meeting of the school's advisory council that the exercise had been organised by the students' representative council.

Since the meeting, the working bee has been carried out with excellent results.

The council was also advised that facilities specialists from the Education Department's physical education branch were to visit the school and plan in detail the most efficient use and development of physical education equipment and grounds.

Altona High has been placed high on the list for physical education teachers arriving from overseas, hopefully, in 1973.

Plans were also considered for the development of the gardens of the school.

The long process of establishing trees and shrubs is now having its intended effect of adding much to the school appearance.

The advisory council decided to replace some 30 poplar trees, which were drought victims.

Arrangements were also made to see that an adequate supply of garden tools is on hand.

Despite much representation by the principal, staff, parents and council, the school was still staffed below the schedule set down by the Education Department.

The advisory council supported the recommendations of the principal for the observance of the weekly patriotic ceremony. At the weekly general assembly, the Australian flag will be flown and the national anthem played.

Although numbers were inadequate for regular evening classes in social studies, mathematics and migrant English, classes are operating for pottery, woodwork, metalwork and cake decorating.

The council asked that the principal investigate the possibility of arranging Council of Adult Education classes.

In an effort to make teaching in Altona as attractive as possible, the advisory council suggested that some discussion take place with Altona Council regarding the possibility of establishing a creche for teachers with young children.

The meeting was a very busy one, but set a good standard for the meetings to follow up for the remainder of the year.

The mothers' club is arranging a buffet tea on Monday, April 16, to enable committee members to meet the staff.

Monday, April 2: Parents and citizens meeting — 8 p.m.

Tuesday, April 3: Mothers' club monthly meeting — 1 p.m.

• Drainage — Buchanan Road: The laying of underground drainage in Buchanan Road was completed.

• Construction of Queen Street: Excavation of woodbed between east side of Victoria Street and west side of Talbot Street was completed. Spreading and consolidation of fine crushed rock including stabilised layer was completed to underside of kerb and channel in this section.

Council pays tribute to Gorden Luck

Altona Council has sent a letter of condolence to the widow of former Altona youth club worker, the late Mr. Gorden Luck.

Mr. Luck, who died recently was a keen worker for the youth club and the Altona Ratepayers' Association.

Council agreed to write to Mrs. Luck following a recommendation by Cr. Bill Sommers.

Supporting the motion, Cr. Pat Lynch said: "I know it is not always council policy to do this but in this case it is justified."

"Mr. Luck was well known for the amount of hard work he did for this community".

Altona State teacher weds

Altona primary school teacher Renate Sonja Szegedi wore a white embroidered organdy gown for her recent marriage to John Lawrence Callaghan.

The couple were married at St. Augustine's Church, Yarraville.

The bride is the elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Szegedi, of Kawkhurst Street, Spotswood, and the groom is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Callaghan, of Valley Parade, Glen Iris.

The bride was attended by her sister, Waltraud Szegedi and Grace Simeoni.

The bride's cousin, Sharon Rowland, was junior bridesmaid.

Groomsman was Dr. Russell Corlett and best man, Mr. Glen Piranni.

The officiating clergyman was Father Egan.

Newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Brian Cameron toast each other after their marriage at St. Eanswythe's Church of England, Queen Street, Altona.

The bride, formerly Miss Kaylene Langdon, is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Langdon of Belmar Avenue, Altona.

The groom is the only son of the late Mr. and Mrs. F. Cameron of Werribee.

Kay wore a gown of crepe with long sleeves and full-length veil. Her bridesmaids wore green and white spotted dresses of crepe de chene and carried bouquets of frangipani.

Engineer's prickly subject

Altona council's environment and pollution portfolio holder, Cr. Doug Grant, has asked the acting city engineer, Mr. Algie Jokubauskas to contact the Victorian Railways Department and arrange for the removal of a mound of earth and prickly bushes on the site of the old Williamstown racecourse station.

Sports stars at council

Guests at last week's meeting of Altona Council included three young Altona people who have excelled at sport.

They are Claire McKay, a gold medalist with Williamstown Little Athletics Club; high jump champion Jenny Davidson and State baseballer Geoff Lynch.

Clair won her gold medal with the Williamstown club's girls' under-12 relay team.

Jenny recently won the junior girls' high jump at the Australian women's athletics championships in Hobart.

Geoff represented Victoria at under-17 baseball.

All three were congratulated by the deputy mayor, Cr. Charlie Carlsson, who chaired the meeting in the mayor's absence.

WANTED — TALK OF OLD DAYS

Altona residents with long memories or items of historical interest are being asked to address meetings of the Altona Historical Society.

Mr. Richard Ross senior, an executive member of the society, said: "We are eager to induce pioneering members of our community to invest our archives and museums with recollections, relics and so on."

"We hope to eventually build up a worthy treasure-trove of such material for the benefit of posterity."

"During recent years, we have witnessed a tremendous stimulation in this kind of preservation and our society feels impelled to participate in this commendable crusade."

Mr. Ross said people could have their stories taped in private if they preferred.

He said people with relics to donate should phone the president, Mrs. J. C. Smith (398 2838) or the secretary, Mr. A. J. Clark (398 2090).

The society's headquarters — the Homestead building, in Queen Street — is itself a memorial, together with housing the museum.

The society plans to publish a history of Altona, written by its secretary, Mr. Allan Clark.

It will also devise a full-length drama, depicting the city's history.

Both schemes are being supported by Altona Council.

NIGHT FOR QUEST GIRL

A smorgasbord night will be held on April 27 at 6 p.m. to aid Miss Yarra-ville Footscray Club entrant, Cheryl Dorgan, 16.

Held in the Spotswood Hotel, the smorgasbord will include dancing and prizes. Admission will be $3.50 single.

Cheryl lives in Bell Avenue, Altona.

Mayor's good turn

Altona's mayor, Cr. Harry Weaver has asked the City Engineer's department to look into the possibility of providing "turning space" for car drivers who frequently pick up people at the Galvin railway station alongside Maidstone Street.

Following a recommendation by Cr. Doug Grant, the engineer's department has also been asked to inspect the toilet facilities at the station and contact the Victorian Railways Department and inform them of their state.

Altona councillors were delighted to learn recently that a deodoriser is being installed at the abattoirs operated in Altona North by R. J. Gilbertsons and Sons Pty. Ltd.

Gilbertsons are the largest employers of labor in the city.

At the recent meeting of Altona Council, Acting City Engineer, Mr. Algie was asked to make arrangements for the removal of an old hut on Board of Works land west of Mount St. Joseph's College.

"The hut may have been used by maintenance men," said the mayor, Cr. Harry Weaver, who is on the board's Planning and Highways Committee.

'Educator' to talk at church

An expert in what is called reality therapy will speak on the theme "schools without failure" at the Presbyterian Church at Altona on April 5.

Plant goes ahead

Construction has commenced on the Nippondenso plant in Kororoit Creek Road, between the Total Petroleum and CIG plants.

The firm will manufacture electrical components and air conditioning units for the motor industry and allied trades.

Australian Motor Industries (the big brother company to Nippondenso) will build their factory in Grieve Parade, south of the Lower Yarra Freeway.

Their plant will be associated with the manufacture of Toyota cars.

He is Mr. Roy Henderson, the regional associate for Australia of the Educator Training Centre.

Mr. Henderson will speak of the application of reality therapy to the classroom and to education.

Mr. Henderson says reality therapy is concerned with the positive involvement of people and the development of individual responsibility as processes of overall human development.

The Institute of Reality Therapy develops programmes for a wide range of services, including those involved with the education system, youth agencies and services involved with the family.

The aim is to establish schools which emphasise success rather than failure, to establish the basis of better communication between teachers and their students and counsellors and their clients.

Mr. Henderson says this method of treating juvenile offenders has proved successful in the U.S.

To mark the occasion, and to congratulate the employees on their own achievement, each was presented with a waterproof flashlight and a metric converter.

In a press release this week, PRA explained what a "serious injury" is.

This is an injury which results in no loss of attendance at work, but is beyond the scope of normal first-aid, and requires treatment by a medical practitioner.

Under this definition, then, a minor cut requiring only one stitch would be classed as a serious injury.

PRA also pointed out that the achievement was all the more noteworthy considering the amount of work that was undertaken at the refinery during the 200-day period.

During one 18-day period of major maintenance work, approximately 160 outside contractors were working in the refinery.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Slides of old Altona will be shown at the next meeting of the Altona Historical Society on April 18.

The society meets on the third Wednesday of the month (except in December and January).

The Altona Museum in the "Homestead", 128 Queen Street, Altona, will be open on Sunday, April 15, from 2.30 p.m. to 4.30 p.m. It is open on the third Sunday of the month. Donation is 10 cents.

STAR GAZE

They've been going down like ninepins in Altona lately, where matrimony is concerned.

First was the "boy wonder" from Kiema Press, Bruce Forrester. Bruce was followed by local musician, Adrian Scott (formerly of the Vehicle), and Maidstone Street's Aldo Madrusan, who married Barbara Hall on Saturday.

Didn't get to hear too much about Bruce's buck's turn, but Scottie's was reasonably tame.

Unlike Aldo's, a gay affair at the Savoy Plaza. Of the four bucks celebrating at the Plaza that night, Aldo was the only one they carried out.

The boys took him for a quick dip in Albert Park lake, wrapped him up in a blanket and took him home to bed.

No doubt Aldo will be warmer now, while he is honeymooning in sunny Surfers' Paradise with his wife.

Aldo's brother, John, travelled 400 miles from Bega (NSW) in his new Ford gala sports ute. to attend the wedding on Saturday.

John is now a full-time disc jockey on Radio 2BE, Bega, and dives for abalone between radio shifts.

Our good friend Paul (Buffalo Bill) Cody, of the Tarmac Hotel, has big things lined up in the way of entertainment.

Every Thursday night is disco night. The Strangers are there on Fridays, with the Blue Echos (including new member Don Mudie) holding their own on Saturday and Sunday nights.

Recent Saturday nights have been absolutely packed out at the Tarmac, says Paul. So book early.

Big night for Dot Scott or Seaholme, on Saturday week. She will be celebrating her 21st birthday at teh Winston Charles.

Believe our local force all fared pretty well at Werribee races last Thursday. For taxation purposes we will not mention names.

Harking back to the Bucks' turns, if you see Romano Ipsa walking around shivering, it's because he stripped down to act as lifesaver the night they threw Aldo in the drink at Albert Park.

Poor Romano spent three days in bed with the flu after the feat.

PRIMARY SCHOOL TO CELEBRATE CENTURY

Williamstown Primary School No. 1183 is 100 years old this year.

The school, in Cecil Street, will celebrate its centenary on Saturday and Sunday, April 14 and 15.

Organisers are hoping that many past pupils will attend the celebrations.

The Director-General of Education, Mr. F. H. Brooks, will officially open the celebrations at 3 p.m. on Saturday, April 14.

At the school, between 2 p.m. and 5 p.m., will be:

- An historical display — "A century of State education in Victoria".
- A book display.
- Films, historical slides and film strips, and stills from movie films of Williamstown in the 1920s and 1930s.
- Broadcast tapes on early Victorian schools.
- A recital by the Williamstown Technical School Band.

On Saturday night, a reunion dance will be held at Williamstown High School's assembly hall between 8 p.m. and 11.30 p.m. Tickets will cost $2 (single) and supper will be provided.

On Sunday, April 15, the displays and films will be open at the school between 9 a.m. and 10.30 a.m.

At 11 a.m., an ecumenical service will be held at Holy Trinity Church of England in Nelson Place. The preacher will be the Very Reverend Norman Faichney, a former pupil.

This will be followed by a basket lunch at the school at 1 p.m. and displays by present pupils between 2 p.m. and 4 p.m. To mark the school's centenary, it is proposed to build a free-standing library midway between the two sections of the school.

This design and siting will enable the library to be used by both infant and senior grades.

The basic structure will cost about 17,000, of which the school has to raise $6000.

Organisers of the celebrations are appealing for names and addresses of former pupils and other interested people.

Information should be sent to Mrs. L. Dunstan, 34 Pascoe Street, Williamstown, 3016.

MOTORING NEWS

Warning system

A different approach to preventing the alcohol or drug impaired driver starting his car has been announced by General Motors electronic control system staff in the United States.

The experimental system makes use of the car's steering wheel and requires the driver to pass a 10-second test by controlling the movement of a needle on an instrument panel dial before he can start the car.

When a driver sits behind the steering wheel and turns the ignition, a dial lights on the instrument panel showing a needle that begins to move back and forth.

The needle responds to control motions of the steering wheel and the driver tries to keep the needle from swinging outside a designated area. This action by the driver is like keeping the car on the road—steering in a way analogous to driving.

If the driver succeeds, a green light marked "pass" turns on and the car can be started. If the needle wavers outside the designated limits a red light turns on and the starter is immobilised.

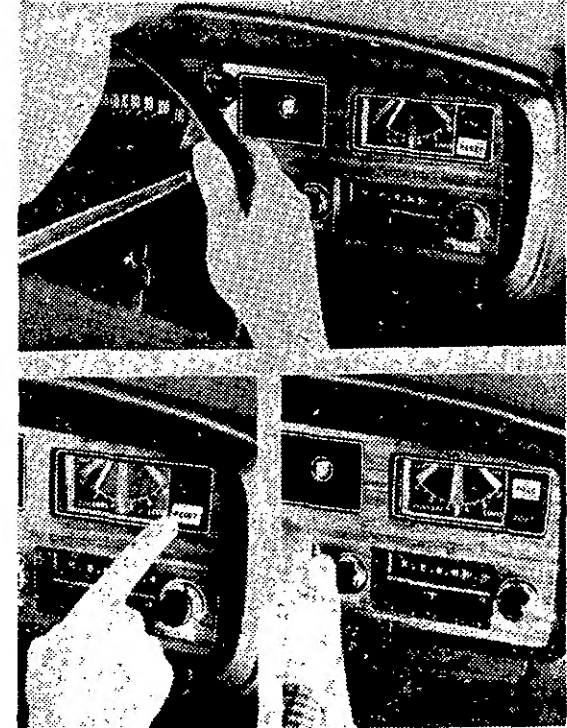

The 'beast' Restraints premieres 'good'

The first appearance of the Holden Dealer Team Torana 5000 sports sedan will be at Sandown's Australian touring car championship meeting on Sunday, April 15.

It will be competing in the second heat of the $10,000 Buckley's Toby Lee series.

The driver will be Bathurst 500 winner Peter Brock and the Torana — already nicknamed "The Beast" — is being readied by Harry Firth and his mechanics at the HDT workshops in Auburn.

As well as competing in the three sports sedan races on Sandown's 13 event programme, Brock will be one of the main contenders in the 25 lap (50 mile) third heat of the Australian touring car championship.

Battery approved

The Standards Association of Australia—national watchdog of quality in manufacturing — has put its official seal of approval on the range of car batteries produced by one of the biggest local automotive component manufacturers.

The firm is Joseph Lucas Pty. Ltd., which also makes electrical equipment for the motor and aviation industries.

Lucas is the first battery maker to submit its produce to the SAA as well as the first to win approval after passing the strict tests for both quality and performance.

In winning SAA approval, Lucas has given the Association the right to "raid" its battery making plant at any time to check production standards. The SAA also has access to the firm's development and testing laboratories. Specifications and performance of materials can be examined.

If standards are not constantly met in production, Lucas could lose the right to the SAA's official seal of approval on its batteries.

Arthur's flying high

Arthur Jones, 45, operates a milk bar-post office-hobby shop in Suffolk St., Sunshine.

The hobby department is a comparatively new section. Installed to provide an outlet for Sunshine's youth.

He contacted Sunshine Youth Club and is now president of the aero modelling classes.

Eighteen eager students pester Arthur for finer details regarding building and flying and he loves it.

In fact, if you ring him now on 311 1007, he will outline what aero modelling is all about.

EX-COUNCILLOR'S DAUGHTER WEDS AT SPOTSWOOD

Pictured after their marriage, recently at St. Mark's Church of England, Spotswood are Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell Douglas Outen.

The bride, formerly Miss Leonie Norma Cooper, is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ron Cooper, of Cooper Avenue, Altona North. (Mr. Cooper is a former Altona councillor.)

Leonie's gown was of classical chiffon with guipure lace motifs on the bodice, a long train and fingertip veil.

She carried a white bouquet of frangipani.

The four bridesmaids, Dianne Cherry, Carolyne McKnight, Leslie Balish and Karen McCombe, wore cyclamen chiffon frocks and frangipani headgear with bouquets to match.

Best man was Mr. Tony Trevan and the groomsman was Mr. Geoff Cooper, the bride's brother.

Following a reception at Shirley Park Receptions, Altona North, the newlyweds left for a honeymoon in Tasmania.

GEM OF A SHOW

A two-mile trek through rugged bush country and then scaling a cliff wall to chip out a piece of stone hardly sounds the ideal way to spend a relaxing weekend, but it is to a lapidary — a collector of rare stone.

The rewards from such excursions are the basis of a display by the Beaumaris Rockhounds Lapidary Club on April 7 and 8. The club says the exhibition, at the Beaumaris Community Centre, will be the most comprehensive held in Victoria, with displays of fossils, natural and polished gemstones and club members operating special machinery.

Included in the exhibition will be:

● An unusual collection of fluorescent gemstones, which show their colors in full brilliance only under ultra-violet lights.

● A crystal display centred around the Crystal King, the largest gem-cut crystal in the world.

● Antique jewellery from the 19th century, which provides a stark comparison to the more avant-garde pieces set by club members.

● Displays of gemstones, including agate, jade, opal, topaz and sapphire, some of which will be on sale.

● Club members working at their machines and explaining the skills of faceting (cutting), setting of gems and other forms of lapidary work.

The exhibition will be open from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. on the Saturday and 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. on the Sunday, at the Beaumaris Community Centre, Reserve Road, Beaumaris. Admission is 40 cents, with proceeds to the Sandringham and District Hospital.

CASH, RADIO STOLEN

An Altona man who parked his car near Newport Railway Station lost the small change he'd been tossing into the glove box.

And he lost the small transistor radio, worth about $14, he left in the car.

Mr. Harold Thornhill, of Blackshaws Road, Altona, found when he went to his car after returning by train from work a vent window had been forced.

ALTONA A FORCE DESPITE LOSS OF TWO STARS

The Metropolitan League soccer season kicks off on Saturday with no clear indication of which teams are likely to be dominant in the First Division.

Dockerty Cup results so far have not gone according to last season's form, with Altona City being eliminated by Third Division side Chelsea in the first round and last year's runner-up and Cup specialist, Sunshine City, crashing to Mooroolbark last Saturday.

ALTONA, nevertheless, is likely to be among the strongest First Division teams. It has a good blend of youth and experience and has the depth of talent to cover the loss of Nat Little who is now with Hellas, Mike Micevski who was sold to Hakoah last week for more than $2800 and Alex Straubinger who also went to Hakoah.

Youngsters Hamill, Gramsberger, Burns, Roberts and McNeill are all likely to make a strong impression this year, to prove once again that Altona is the best soccer nursery in Victoria.

SUNSHINE CITY has lost Kaz Pietrowski and star defender Bill McGowan is unlikely to play due to illness. The club has been looking for new players and its success will depend on whether it gets them.

KEILOR CITY, with Stan Klain back in the ranks and Peter Marshall transferred from Footscray J.U.S.T., should improve greatly on last year's poor showing. In the Dockerty Cup the team showed dashing form in trouncing FRANKTON CITY 3-1 and PRAHRAN 5-1 but was eliminated last week by neighbor ST. ALBANS.

The Saints are back in First Division after two years but whether its 2-1 victory over Keilor was a sign of things to come remains to be seen. Because the St. Albans area has for so long been a stronghold of soccer, it would be fitting were Keilor, St. Albans and AJAX to fight it out for promotion.

Ajax showed good form in practice matches — beating State League team Austria among others — but lost 1-2 to LIONS in the first round of the Dockerty Cup.

WESTERN SUBURBS, champion of the Second Division, struggled to a 1-0 win against Fourth Division club BELL PARK before being eliminated from the Cup 2-1 by Sunshine.

George Maukousis is an excellent forward but there are doubts about whether the rest of the team has the same talent.

One thing is certain — with seven local teams in the league, the championship plus promotion to State League is almost certain to go to a west suburban club.

Strongest threat from the east is likely to come from MOOROOLBARK, which has improved greatly under former Wilhelmina and Baggownie (NSW) coach Brian Edgely.

FRANKTON CITY must again be considered a threat, if only on the form it showed last year.

It's a foolish exercise, but I'll stick my neck out and guess that at the end of the year, the league could look something like this:

1 Altona, 2 Keilor, 3 Sunshine, 4 Mooroolbark, 5 St. Albans, 6 Ajax, 7 Frankton, 8 Western Suburbs, 9 Yallourn, 10 Ringwood, 11 Lions, 12 Springvale.

In Second Division, the only representative of the western suburbs is ALBION ROVERS, whose players are too old to lead the club to the top.

Favorites for promotion must be FERN TREE GULLY and HEIDELBERG.

Division Three is likely to be dominated by ELTHAM, CHELSEA and perhaps BAYSWATER.

NEWPORT, which is the only western team in this division, will have to improve 200 per cent. to make an impression.

Fourth Division also features only one western club — ESSENDON CITY TRIESTINA.

The team was among the leaders last year and should again perform well, along with MOORABBIN and BELL PARK.

Saturday's Metropolitan League matches, on grounds of the first-named clubs, with likely winners in capitals:

FIRST DIVISION: MOOR-

OOLBARK v. Yallourn, Sunshine

City v. Frankton City (draw),

Western Suburbs v. AJAX, Lions

Springvale v. ST. ALBANS.

YARRA v. Sandringham.

FOURTH DIVISION: CLAYTON

Dockerty Cup

Only two First Division teams have survived the Metropolitan League rounds of the Dockerty Cup.

They are ST. ALBANS and MOOROOLBARK, which, together with FERN TREE GULLY and ALBION ROVERS, have qualified to meet State League clubs in the first main round later this year.

Last week's cup results:

Metropolitan League elimination round 4: Sunshine City 0, Mooroolbark 2; Fern Tree Gully 3, Yallourn 0; St. Albans 2, Keilor City

1 (after extra time); Albion Rovers

2, Ringwood United 1.

Provisional League elimination round 2: Port Melbourne 2, Frank-ton Pines 1; Werribee 2, Melton

3; Geelong v. Langwarrin postponed until April 8.

Favorites for promotion must be FERN TREE GULLY and HEIDELBERG.

Division Three is likely to be dominated by ELTHAM,

CHELSEA and perhaps BAYSWATER.

NEWPORT, which is the only western team in this division, will have to improve 200 per cent. to make an impression.

Fourth Division also features

only one western club — ES-

SENDON CITY TRIESTINA.

The team was among the leaders last year and should quality.

J.U.S.T. has skilful players

in Buljevic, Rujevic, Miele,

Milicov, Lopatic and Lukic but is yards slower than the younger Wilhelmina and lacks the Ringwood's team's fighting

quality.

Polonia v. Hakoah

The game will be decided in midfield, where Colin Alexander, Bob Smith and Peter Orlerton should gain the upper hand.

Strengthened by star Altona recruit Mike Micevski and with Bobby Saunders back in the team, HAKOAH should be too strong for POLONIA-MARIBYRNONG at Raleigh Reserve on Saturday.

In Barry Webb, John Webb, Jock Goodwin and even Hans

Micevski scored two goals against ALEXANDER last week in his first match for Hakoah and he and Mike Clarey will form a lethal striking duo.

Polonia is the direct opposite. It has no strikers at all, as it demonstrated against J.U.S.T. last Sunday.

Polonia's youth policy is admirable but the younger players showed nothing against J.U.S.T.

George Cross v. Slavia

With good 3-1 win over Juventus under its belt, GEORGE CROSS should boost its goal average with a big victory against SLAVIA at Schindler Reserve on Sunday.

With a little luck, the Cross may get the long-awaited clearance for Irish linkman Paul Murphy who played for Bangor City in the First Division.

Joe Cunningham has developed into a dangerous striker, and is scoring in almost every match.

John Gardiner is back to monopolise the mid-field and Dario Epifano is back on target in attack.

Slavia has little to boast of. English recruit Frank Campbell has proved a winner in defence and Alan Copeland is a good full back.

Mike O'Hara emerged from the doldrums last week and Stuart Gilmour could become a handy striker.

That's where the talent ends and you'd have to be crazy to think Slavia could worry the aggressive Cross line-up.

Austria v. Box Hill

AUSTRIA might be in a mess, but BOX HILL is downright laughable, so the Keilor team should score a valuable victory at Schindler Reserve on Saturday.

In Barry Webb, John Webb, Jock Goodwin and even Hans

Hinze, Austria has men who can score goals, which is more than can be said for the Hill-men.

Austria was unlucky to lose to Slavia last week. It had most of the play, Barry Webb hit the woodwork, and Slavia had to defend desperately for long periods.

In other matches, MEL-

BOURNE should beat JUVENIUS at Middle Park on Saturday and HELLAS should thrash ALEXANDER in an all-Greek derby at Olympic Park on Sunday.

State League ladder:

	W	D	L	F	A	Pts.
Wilhelmina	1	0	0	4	0	2
J.U.S.T.	1	0	0	2	0	2

Altona cricket club gains a coveted treble

Altona Cricket Club completed a coveted treble last weekend when A and C grade teams won divisional premierships.

Altona's Under 16 team won a flag the previous week.

A GRADE:

Due to adverse weather conditions during the week no preparation was possible on the wicket and play was delayed 140 minutes.

When play got under way the wicket, at best, could only be described as a cow paddock. It was evident that if Altona were to survive the three hours the batting would need plenty of application and discipline.

Wayne Patton and Bruce Forrester resumed with the score at 2 for 25 and with an excellent display stayed together for 60 minutes before Patton was out caught.

Colin Shaw joined Forrester and immediately rose to the occasion with runs of little consequence.

Altona were content to survive Forrester, after batting for a nightmare 2 hours was next to go and with 65 minutes Altona were 4 for 63.

Michael Oram and Shaw

FLAG GOES TO SPOTTY

Spotswood Cricket First XI trimmed a memorable season by capturing the VJCA senior division premiership last weekend.

It is only the second time a club has won the pennant in its first season. Spotswood and Westgate clubs combined at the start of the season and were admitted to the senior division.

Captain-coach, Ian Marsden and the administration faced and conquered numerous problems throughout the season and the pennant is a fitting reward.

SCORES:

Spotswood 182 and 3/67 defeated Frankston 150 and 9 dec. 127.

reduced this time by 36 minutes with Oram being dismissed by an excellent caught and bowled.

Page was next to go and with 13 minutes remaining Altona had only four wickets in hand — to add to the tension Alec Merrill went first ball and Altona were in trouble unless Shaw could retain the strike.

This he was able to do and Altona, although losing Geoff Stephenson in the last over, survived to take out the flag.

C GRADE:

The start of the game was delayed for an hour due to the state of the wicket. Altona, at 9 for 117, resumed their 2nd innings but were able to add only two runs before Alan Jobson was bowled. John Diener remained six not out.

Windsor, requiring 206 runs to win, ran into immediate trouble when Alan Jobson in a devastating display claimed four wickets within three overs.

From 4 for 13 Windsor recovered by adding 51 runs before a nasty gash above the eye forced the retirement of one of the batsmen and from this point the game was virtually over.

Michael Calaz in a good display, took four wickets and Frank Kirk one, Windsor were dismissed for 99 giving Altona C grade its second flag in three years.

METHS. START

Williamstown Methodist Football Club senior and Under-17 teams will kick-off next Saturday, April 7.

The seniors will play Newport at home and the Under-17s will battle Altona, away.

Other junior teams will start the following Saturday, April 14.

In order to standardise jumpers for all teams, the club has adopted Melbourne's colors. The senior and junior players will wear the new jumpers on Saturday and other teams will switch when finance is available.

Admission

Victorian Sub-district Cricket Association president R. Hatch and secretary W. Price attended Altona Cricket Club's general committee meeting last week.

The club has applied for admission to Sub-district ranks. A decision will be announced in November.

Newport baseballers ready for the hit-off

Newport Baseball Club will hit off the winter round of matches against Williamstown next Saturday.

The club will field a fourth senior team to accommodate the influx of new players — a healthy sign.

It is hoped the fielding of four senior teams will "push" Newport up the ladder.

A players dinner will be held in the clubrooms on Thursday, April 5, at 6.30 p.m.

Team selections for the first game will be announced, followed by a brief talk by the coach and finish with games.

A team: Geoff Butlin (captain-coach), Lindsay Barnes (vice-captain), Bob Milne (manager).

B team: Bill Minett (captain), Ray Ockwell (vice-captain/manager).

C team: Dick Murdoch (captain), George Williams (vice-captain/manager).

D team: Alan Solomano (captain).

Independent selectors are Harry Douglas, Barry Howard and Jim Smith.

The ladies' committee will be holding their first function for club members in the clubrooms at Park Crescent, Williamstown, on Saturday, April 14, from 6.30 p.m. All members and friends are urged to attend.

GULLS TOPS

Williamstown trounced 1972 Diamond Valley premiers, Eltham, at seaside oval, last Sunday.

Williamstown 20.25 (145) d. Eltham 7.6 (48).

The previous Sunday's dismal display against Waverley was forgotten as Williamstown wound into top gear and booted eight goals four behinds in the second half.

Supporters witnessed Williamstown's football promise — a great team in '73.

Captain-coach Barry Gill, made his first home ground appearance.

Kevin Jackman, back in the team after injury, showed glimpses of form.

Leon Groenewegen, a 6ft. 3 1/2 in. half-back, played strongly and was signed after the game.

Goals: Hemley, Les Stillman, Jackman 3, Anstey, Patterson, Fanning 2, Gill, Jarrad, Hannebery, Groves, Collins.

Best: Benton, Stillman, Percy, Collins, Groves, Jackman.

Little aths. barbecue

Altona Little Athletics Centre will hold a break-up barbecue behind the Civic offices next Saturday, April 7, at 3 p.m.

Food will be provided for club members and families.

Westona club will hold its annual meeting at Altona West primary school, Belmar Avenue, Altona, on Thursday, April 12, at 8 p.m. Reports will be submitted and office bearers elected.

Seaholme club will hold a presentation night at the Methodist Hall, Seves Street, on April 13, at 8 p.m. Past and present officials and parents are invited to attend.

WILLY JUNIORS ARE FOURTH

Williamstown Amateur Athletic Club's junior team finished fourth in the grand finals held at Olympic Park recently.

John Van Denoever set new club records in both the pole vault (10 ft. 6 in.) and hammer throw (109 ft. 3 in.).

John also won the shot put event with a put of 43 ft. 2 in. and threw the discus 114 ft. 6 in.

Robert Caldwell won his heat of the 400 metres in 53.3 sec.

In the 1500 metres Eero Keranen, ran 4.11.7.

The under 13 competition was won convincingly by Box Hill with Williamstown, fifth.

The most outstanding performance was by Steven Hardeman, who won the 800 metres walk in 3 min. 58 sec.

Chris Lowden was placed second in the discus and shot put.

The club's 48th annual meeting will be held at the club rooms, (Newport Oval, Market Street), on Sunday, April 29, at 10 a.m.
